District council leader on 2013: 'It's going to be a tough year'

THE leader of East Devon District Council, Paul Diviani, has pledged to redouble efforts to protect frontline services in the wake of further cuts in government funding.

In his New Year message to residents, Councillor Diviani reveals that the government is cutting a further 9.4 per cent, or £491,000, from East Devon's Formula Grant – the funding that councils receive each April. This excludes additional monies received for new housing growth in the area.

Councillor Diviani said: "This cut, on top of others in previous years, means we'll have redouble our efforts to protect frontline services in the face of rising costs and falling income."

"With Council Tax frozen, investment income down, fuel and heating costs rising mean, we're going to find it ever more difficult to maintain our current level of service, much as we want to.

"We must continue looking for savings – whether from managing our operation more efficiently or, if the sums add up, possibly moving from unsuitable offices at Knowle to a purpose-built functional building somewhere else."

Councillor Diviani said he appreciated the office move was controversial and that it was likely to continue to be a high profile issue in 2013.

He continued: "It is not a foregone conclusion and no decisions have been made."

"We're not intent on moving at any cost; we're listening to residents' views and we'll balance that feedback against some of the harsh realities we face."

"There have been some mistakes along the way, and we need to get better at informing our residents and listening to them in 2013 – although that doesn't necessarily mean we'll be able to please everyone."

"We have a duty to every taxpayer in the district and any decisions we make will have to be guided by that, especially if we want to keep Council Tax low."

"That also applies to our Local Plan, which goes to public examination by a government inspector in 2013."

"We have to perform a fine balancing act between protecting our lovely landscapes and meeting rising pressure for homes and jobs."

"Two recent planning appeal defeats show that we must get that balance right and have a proper supply of land for jobs and homes."

"Without this we risk the kind of uncontrolled development that both we and the people of East Devon don't want."

Best way

"Whilst reducing our spending power, the Government still recognise that councils like

District Council leader Paul Diviani

East Devon are the best way to deliver local services efficiently.

"Why else would they be giving us the task of delivering services previously managed nationally, such as Council Tax Benefit – and on slashed budgets?!"

"Our new Council Tax Support scheme has been agreed and those affected will shortly be hearing in detail what's going to

Tigers concede four penalties

ALTHOUGH they were fielding an understrength side, Axminster Town travelled to Teignmouth on Saturday confident they could build on their best ever season in the South West Peninsular League.

The Tigers enjoyed a brief pre-Christmas spell at the top of Division One and made the journey to South Devon in second place, with their first opponents of 2013 trailing behind them.

With usual keeper Luke Ashford suspended, The Tigers lined up with new signing Matthew Long, brother of full-back Chris Long, between the sticks and only two players on the bench.

It all went to plan in the first half with the Tigers going in at half-time with a 1-0 win, courtesy of a Martyn Hancock goal.

But the second half turned out to be nothing short of a farce with the referee awarding Teignmouth no fewer than four penalties to give the home side an eventual and ill-deserved 6-2 win.

The defeat saw Axminster drop into fourth place but they are still very much in the mix among the leading clubs.

Paul Diviani, leader of East Devon District Council, commenting on further cuts in government funding in his New Year's message to residents.

“ THERE are no gold coloured letterboxes in Colyford but both the Olympics and Diamond Jubilee celebrations were enjoyed by all.'

AXMINSTER

Turn court into viable centre

AXMINSTER'S longest serving councillor Douglas Hull is making a New Year appeal for the authorities to revive previously considered plans for the former magistrates' court building in Lyme Close to be turned into an administration centre.

The cedar-clad former courtroom next to Axminster Police Station, has stood empty since the magistrates' court ceased operating in the town in the early 2000s.

It was closed as part of a cost-cutting exercise to cut magistrates' courts across Devon, with all cases being dealt with in Exeter.

Before losing his seat on Devon County Council, which owns the building, town and district councillor Mr Hull, who next year celebrates 50 years in local government, co-ordinated an agency partnership proposal to find a suitable use for the decaying building.

Since then, however, those plans have been abandoned and Councillor Hull is now concerned that plans to amalgamate Axminster's police and fire stations on one site further down Lyme Close will see the courtroom site lost to housing abandoned and Councillor Hull is now concerned that plans to amalgamate Axminster's police and fire stations on one site further down Lyme Close will see the courtroom site lost to housing.

Councillor Hull, who served on the county council for 12 years and is now a county Alderman, and has been a member of East Devon District Council for more than 30 years, is now calling on Axminster Town Council to set up a committee to look into the possibilities of turning the old magistrates' court into a "useful centre for Axminster town and the Axe Valley."

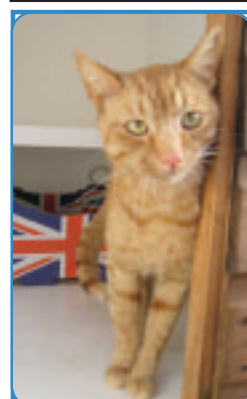

He has written to Axminster Town Council clerk Hilary Kirkcaldy asking her to place an item on the agenda for the next full council meeting on Monday (January 14th).

No brawl arrests

NO arrests have been made following street brawls in Axminster in the early hours of Saturday, December 22nd.

But police have confirmed that their enquiries are continuing into the incidents in Lyme Road and Silver Street.

Axminster trader Terry Barker, who suffered multiple fractures in the Silver Street incident, has undergone five hours of surgery on a head injury inflicted in the brawl.

From the editor's chair Disastrous for Devon

OVER a Christmas drink a friend recounted a story of how he came close to losing his life in the recent floods.

He was attempting to drive from the Fisherman's Cot pub near Tiverton to Bickleigh Castle where he was attending a wedding.

As he was driving along a lane that runs adjacent to the River Exe, that was in full flood, the banks burst and over the hedge came a deluge of water that quickly flooded his car.

Miraculously, after losing control, his 4 x 4 vehicle got jammed against a tree which prevented it from being swept into the Exe.

My friend is a big chap and it was all he could do to force open a door as the car filled with water.

"I don't mind telling you I thought I was a gonner and said a little prayer," he told me.

Somehow he summoned the strength to free himself from the vehicle but the water was up to his chest. Fortunately, he was helped to safety by some passers-by in an adjoining field. Another bit of luck.

It brought home to me how precious life is and how quickly danger can present itself, especially where water is involved.

It was confirmed last week that 2012 was the wettest year in Devon since records began, despite the fact we started the year with a drought.

On New Year's Day I also bumped into Stuart Hughes, the colourful chairman of Sidmouth Town Council and the Devon County Council Cabinet member for Transport, at Yeovil Town. He also knew my friend and I was able to recount his lucky escape.

The atrocious weather has been nothing short of disastrous for Devon. Hundreds of homes have been flooded, some of them several times, including many properties in Pulman's Country.

Roads and cliffs have been decimated and agriculture is facing a grim future with thousands of acres of prime land still under water.

Stuart Hughes has featured prominently in recent weeks on our regional television screens, highlighting the damage caused to the county's roads in straight-forward, honest fashion, without spin. The government has given the already cash-strapped County Hall £6 million to deal with the problem. The cost is estimated at £10 million.

"I just don't know what we are going to do," he said removing his Yeovil beanie hat and scratching his head.

Time for Devon's MPs to put politics aside and put together a watertight case (no pun intended) for Devon to be fairly compensated.

Tough year ahead warns EDDC leader

COLYTON/COLYFORD

Safeguarding the parish green areas

SAFEGUARDING the community and protecting green areas are priorities this year for both Colyton Parish Council chairman and the Mayor of Colyford.

Parish council chairman Andrew Parr and new Mayor of Colyford Howard West are both looking ahead to matters they would like to see resolved in 2013. Both commented on the need to protect green areas around the parish, with particular reference to land between Colyford and Seaton, where a planning application for 170 houses is currently under consideration.

Councillor Parr said 2012 was a busy year for the parish council and he hopes the main issues that arose will be resolved during 2013.

"A lot of time was spent discussing the Villages Development Plan Document and possible development sites for the future," he said.

"Public consultation meetings were held in Colyton and Colyford and proposed sites were agreed. A report has now gone forward to East Devon District Council and will hopefully be adopted in their Local Plan. If so, this will safeguard the communities of Colyton and Colyford."

SIDMOUTH

Horsedrawn coach launches bus fleet

A £1.5 MILLION investment in eight new buses for the 52 route through Sidmouth is to be celebrated today (Tuesday) with an official launch event across the town's esplanade.

Stagecoach South West announced the purchase of eight new double decker buses for the 52 route which all meet the latest Euro 5 low emissions standards, representing a total investment of £1.5 million and demonstrating its continued commitment to Devon's public transport services.

The 52 route which runs between Exeter, Sidmouth, Seaton and Honiton is popular with both local and tourists alike and organisers of the launch event hope that the day will celebrate the service's success.

The main event will be held on The Esplanade of Sidmouth from 11am onwards and will feature special guest, local Olympian equestrian Mary King MBE as well as a vintage horse-drawn omnibus from Stagecoach co-founder and chief executive, Sir Brian Souter's personal collection.

Mrs King and the omnibus will lead a procession of the new vehicles along the seafront, allowing invited guests to choose between a vintage or 21st century bus travel experience. All four buses present will also be sporting a special livery depicting a variety of Sidmouth scenes, making an altogether eye-catching display.

Managing Director of Stagecoach South West, Michelle Hargreaves, said "Once again I am delighted to announce further investment in our South West fleet. Again and again we have been able to demonstrate that, despite the challenging economic climate, we are still spending on new buses to provide an even better service to our customers."

Councillor Stuart Hughes, Devon County Council Cabinet Member for Highways and Transportation and Chairman of Sidmouth Town Council, added: "The Service 52 has been a real success story with increasing patronage on an important link across East Devon."

"This new investment from Stagecoach is very welcome and shows confidence in this thriving route."

"These are state of the art buses which should attract more passengers to explore and see what Sidmouth and other towns along the route have to offer."

happen. East Devon has one of the highest proportions of pensioners in the country and they will not be affected by changes to Council Tax Benefit."

Councillor Diviani said the government was "really impressed" with the progress EDDC was making at Cranbrook, and recently announced a £20 million boost to help accelerate new schools, shops, homes and infrastructure.

He pointed out that the first residents moved in 2012 and 50 homes were already occupied. More homes were coming online every day and the district heating centre was now complete. Jobs would be provided at Exeter Science Park, at Skypark and at the new Sainsbury's terminal, among others.

"We're delighted to be part of the Exeter and East Devon Growth Point team that received the accolade of 'Most Proactive Public Sector Body' at the annual Regen South West Green Energy Awards in November.

"We're hoping local MP Hugo Swire (Minister of State at the Foreign and Commonwealth Office) may help in attracting foreign investment to the Science Park and Skypark developments. And we'll give a warm welcome to a delegation from South Korea, visiting Cranbrook next May."

Very satisfied

"People living in our council houses are 'very satisfied' with our service, according to the latest tenants' survey. And our Home Safeguard service has passed rigorous testing to retain an industry excellence award.

"Our Countryside and Arts services are performing well, with accolades for a new bridge we helped to build at Ottery, and ongoing improvements to the Axe Estuary Wetlands, our local theatres and Honiton's Thelma Hulbert Gallery. "Around the district we've been pioneering a new way of spending money from developments by working hand-in-hand with residents to create the facilities they want.

"From improvements to gardens in Seaton, to the upgraded skatepark in Exmouth and outdoor gyms in several towns, the imaginative spending of developers' contributions to the community is there for all to see.

"We're making steady progress with our regeneration plans for Exmouth and Seaton and we're investing in affordable housing in a number of East Devon towns.

"The year ended on a high with the announcement that EDDC has achieved Investors in People Gold status, the first and only council in Devon to gain the highest recognition for the training and excellence of its staff.

"I'd like to pay a personal tribute to the wonderful people who work for EDDC in many specialisms, often with little or no public recognition.

"I'm proud of the work they do and the results they achieve.

"We have some exciting plans for the New Year to communicate more promptly and more imaginatively with our residents through social media and an e-magazine.

"We look forward to some amazing things happening to the west of the district as Cranbrook takes shape and other projects around it start to make visible progress."

Councillor Diviani concluded his message by saying: "Times are tough and it's going to get tougher. We will work hard to ensure we continue to give the people of East Devon the best value for money and the best range of services we can, despite deeper cuts in funding.

"I wish you all a very Happy New Year."

NHS to recruit community nurses across the area

THE Northern Devon Healthcare NHS Trust has launched a New Year campaign to recruit community nurses across its Eastern patch.

The Trust is looking to bolster its community teams with experienced nurses seeking a new challenge, those looking to return to practice and recently-qualified students.

There are also opportunities to work in community hospitals and the Trust's out-of-hours team.

The aim is to recruit about 20 Band 5 nurses in the Trust's Eastern area, which covers Exeter, Mid and East Devon and the fringes of Dartmoor.

Carolyn Mills, the Trust's director of nursing, said: "Most people prefer to be cared for independently in their own home than in a hospital, and healthcare is developing to reflect this.

"Across Devon, our community nurses care for between 5,000 and 6,000 patients in their own home at any one time.

"Our new recruits will help us build on our success at preventing admissions to hospital and, when this is not possible, facilitating an early return home."

The Trust has opportunities in these areas: Axminster, Budleigh Salterton, Cridton, Exeter, Exmouth, Honiton, Moretonhampstead, Okehampton, Ottery St Mary, Seaton, Sidmouth and Tiverton.

Nurses interested in joining the Trust can apply via the NHS Jobs website before the deadline of Jan 17.

Double victory for Pidsley family

TRIUMPH | Linda Pidsley and her championship winning British Blue heifer, Jules

THE 31st Exeter and District Christmas Show was an unprecedented success for Linda Pidsley of Payhembury, near Honiton, writes Alan Quick.

Linda took home 10 trophies and an array of titles including the championship with Jules, her 21-month-old British Blue heifer.

After taking the title at the show held at Exeter Livestock Centre the champion heifer was sold for £3,100 (500 pence per kilo) to the judge, Stuart Clatworthy, from Somerset.

The Pidsley family also took the reserve champion award, which went to their 18-month-old Blue heifer Fancy Pants, and was sold to Gerald David of Porlock, reaching 290ppk.

In the sheep pens, it was a successful day for Robert Darke and Judith Lapthorne, of Kingsbridge, who took the championship with a pair of Texel lambs, making £122 (281ppk), also sold to Gerald David.

Exeter City Council own Exeter Livestock Centre, where the show took place, and the Lord Mayor of Exeter, Cllr Rob Newby, and the show president, Donald Burrough, presented the awards.

The chairman of the show is John Quick of Coldridge, the secretary is Angela Heard and chief steward is Troy Stuart.

Kivells and Husseys, the market auctioneers, reported a fantastic day. They said it was one of the best-ever quality line-ups of cattle.

Speaking afterwards, senior cattle auctioneer, Simon Alford, said: "We were delighted to see so many people at Exeter Livestock Centre and heartened by the encouragement from the city council."

"The show and sale was a terrific success with unrivalled quality livestock present for everyone to see."

Linda Pidsley said that she was "blown away" to win the championship and reserve championship.

She said: "After a huge success at the Exeter Show last year I have been told I made market history by being the first exhibitor in a 30-year history of the primestock show to ever win the champion and reserve champion titles."

"It is truly amazing and follows a hugely successful season with 'Joules' winning the championships at Honiton and Okehampton shows, first prize at Beef South West and third at the English Handlers."

"I must say a huge thanks to my mum and dad, Michael and Judith, my partner, Paul, and other friends and family who have been a great support."

Pulman's View from the churches

With NIGEL SPELLER

JOHN Streeting from the Axe Valley Mission Community opens: As the first of the local clergy to write in 2013, may I wish you all every happiness and good health for the coming year.

A new year is always full of new possibilities and so an exciting time. It is also a time for new resolutions many of which we seem not to keep for too long, but that is not the point.

Some of our ambitions for the New Year do last and come to glorious fruition. We all have our ideals for what we would like to be better for the coming year.

For some it is improved health, for others better employment and there are many other aspirations, often of a more materialistic nature, such as a new car or a special holiday.

For the Church of England it is a new era following the retirement of Rowan Williams as the Archbishop of Canterbury. It is my belief that he achieved much in difficult times for the church and he will be greatly missed.

Our new Archbishop could hardly come from a more difficult background. The academic is replaced by the man from the oil industry! In his short time as Bishop of Durham, Dr Justin Welby, the new Archbishop, has been much admired so things look good for the future. I do hope 2013 is a good year for us all.

With Christmas and New Year behind us we see the return of some normal events. First comes grateful thanks from Honiton Baptist Church for help towards a disabled toilet, from all those who helped at their Christmas Bazaar, and appreciation of the Antiques Festival support in 2012 with further donations.

Looking ahead, St Michael's Church Colyford has an Epiphany Party on Saturday, January 12th from 6pm – tickets £4 are available at Colyford Post Office.

And Branscombe Church has announced a Flower Festival from June 28th to July 1st, enquiries to 01297 553482.

Church views over the Christmas season included a one hour television programme by the retiring Archbishop of Canterbury, compiled and presented by him, which traced vividly the history of Canterbury Cathedral and explained its place in the Church of England.

We should have great gratitude for his leadership, even as we welcome his successor, and wish every blessing on his next ministry in Cambridge. A further programme in three parts, also bearing on the C of E, traced the connections of our Royal Family with their relations in Germany. The programmes are worth a viewing if they return.

AXMINSTER LADIES PHOENIX – December 2012

AT THEIR December meeting Axminster's Phoenix Ladies reviewed their charitable donations for this year.

Unfortunately last month's vote ended in a tie, so members were asked to vote between the two that finished top or to share the monies between them.

It was decided by a show of hands to share the money between Wyndon Ring & Ride and Togs Care Service.

In January the group have to review their sponsorship of Aita Kumari, so if members wish to carry on sponsoring her they should try to come to this meeting.

As everyone enjoyed the Christmas Dinner celebration at Sidmouth so much it was agreed to book the Belmont again for 2013; a possible date would be December 9th.

A total of £27 was raised at the raffle for funds for the forthcoming year. There were so many prizes that some people had repeat wins and so put their prize in for a re-draw. It was decided that non-winners should get the remaining prizes or the group would have been there for hours!

Our speaker this month was Shige Takezoe, giving us a taste of Japan. Shige was from Tokyo and after he met his English wife, Diana, he decided to make his home in England.

After a short talk Shige gave us a demonstration of how to cook Sushi. Shige and his wife live in Chideock and run a self catering cottages business, but they also cook Japanese food for private parties.

Margaret Hayne gave a well deserved vote of thanks echoed by us all.

This month's speaker will be Peter Haywood talking about 'Milk Deliveries' – if you're intrigued and would like to find out more, the meeting takes place tonight (January 8th) in the United Reformed Church Hall.

You will be made most welcome.

Pupils in regional debating finals

STUDENTS at Honiton Community College beat off strong competition from schools across Devon, Dorset and Gloucestershire to win a place in the regional final of a national competition.

Members of the college's Sixth Form debating team, including Lydia George, Conor Murphy, Andrew Moth and Samuel Johnson, will now compete in the next round of the Debating Matters competition in Bristol.

Lydia and Conor won the first debate – arguing against the motion that free speech should never be an absolute – beating the Farmor's School from Gloucestershire.

Samuel and Andrew won the second debate against Sherborne Girls' School – stating a case against the motion that the UK should avoid a dash for gas.

The team also includes Tamara Rutland, Amy Keitch and Jack Fry.

Team members have now set their sights on winning a place at the national final in London.

Smoke in loft space

THREE fire appliances were sent to tackle a chimney fire in Marsh, near Honiton, on New Year's Day.

The blaze, involving a wood burning stove, caused smoke logging in the loft of the property.

Two fire appliances from Honiton and one from Chard attended the incident.

A spokesman for Devon and Somerset Fire and Rescue Service said: "Upon arrival of the fire crews, it was evident there was a small chimney fire, resulting in some smoke logging in the loft space."

Just like it was during the last war

YEAR six children at Littletown Academy stepped into the shoes of World War Two evacuees with a special celebratory day to end their history studies.

During the past term, the children from the Honiton school have been learning about World War Two and, in particular, how life for people in Devon was affected by the conflict.

Dressed in evacuee costumes, individually researched during their history classes, the children arrived at school for a themed day, beginning with an in-depth talk from World War Two enthusiast and teaching assistant, Michelle Small.

Mrs Small came armed with a whole host of memorabilia from uniforms and costumes, to different gas masks and kit issued to those on the front line from 1939 to 1945. Whilst the classroom was filled with exciting props, items and historic exhibits, the school's playground had an even more exciting thing to explore, when Mrs Small also brought along a classic Australian Dodge car from 1940.

Fun continued on the day when the children put their rationing knowledge to the test, weighing and measuring out ingredients to create war time pastry vegetable rolls and eggless sponge cakes.

The themed event ended with a specially created street party, commemorating VE Day in the school corridor, complete with Union Jack bunting. The children enjoyed war-time treats including ginger beer and real lemonade served by teachers.

Follow the star fun day success

HONITON youngsters enjoyed a fun packed morning at the Mackarness Hall to finish off their Christmas holidays.

Run by children's workers at St Paul's Church, the 'Follow The Star' fun day aimed to teach the children about the story of the three kings and their journey to find baby Jesus.

Learning about different aspects of the story, around ten children aged between 5 and 10 years took part in games, parachute activities, and story-telling fun.

The group of youngsters even had the chance to try out some star related arts and crafts, creating paper star snowflakes, decorated tissue paper stars, hand painting and even making their own sparkly golden crowns.

Following the fun and games, the children settled down to enjoy some winter warmer snacks and to listen to the story of the three kings.

St Paul's children's worker, Becca Bradley-Carter, said: "This morning has been great and a really fun way for the children to learn about another part of the Christmas story. Like the wise men, we want to find Jesus, and so the morning has been an important event to learn more about the special story."

The horticultural society is still looking for someone to take on the essential role of secretary for the group. Duties consist mainly of taking part in committee meetings, taking minutes, which happen five times a year, and also preparing and displaying posters for the society's social events.

Seaton Lions raise more than £3,000

SEATON and District Lions have been celebrating after an estimated £3,000 was raised during their Santa's sleigh collections in December.

Despite the terrible weather, only one route in Beer was cancelled and the group were pleased with the generous response from the local community.

Lion David Rickard said: "We anticipate a total of more than £3,000 from our collections with the Santa's sleigh, including a collection just before Christmas at Seaton's Tesco and Co-op stores. On behalf of the Lions, I would like to thank the public for their generosity raising such a fantastic amount during times of such financial struggle."

New Year's Eve at Seaton Town Hall

MORE than 160 people flocked to Seaton's Gateway for a fun packed evening to bring in the New Year.

The annual town hall fundraiser was an instant sell out, with crowds filling the decorated hall and providing an excited atmosphere.

Supported by around 20 volunteers, the evening went with bang as guests first enjoyed champagne and canapés on arrival, followed by a three-course buffet and an uplifting performance from the Rat Pack Boys who had everyone up and dancing.

Around 100 balloons were released from the ceiling onto the packed dance floor to celebrate the New Year at midnight.

Chairman of Seaton's Voice, Carole Manley, gave a speech thanking all the volunteers and supporters of the Gateway throughout the year.

Seaton's Voice all set for the future

A £7,500 grant from Seaton Town Council has given Seaton's Voice the boost they needed to provide a new and innovative form of live streaming to the Gateway, at the town hall.

The state of the art equipment featuring a cinematic satellite, projector and surround sound will put the town hall on the map at the forefront of technology in the South West with only Bridport and Exeter having similar equipment.

Before even being considered for the equipment, a definite technical specification of equipment was outlined by the National Theatre before the town hall could become a venue for live streaming.

The streaming will enable whatever is being performed or is being transmitted live across the world to be shown at the town hall, from musicals and theatre productions in the

by Laura Goldsbury Noy
laura@pemedial.co.uk

West End, to New York Opera, Royal Ballet, games and sport, children theatre, world speakers and lectures.

This will not only bring a wealth of previously unreachable and expensive shows to town, but will also transform the hall into a cinema.

Seaton's Voice is working hand in hand with the film club and is now able to show new releases without waiting for them to come out on DVD.

The shows can be recorded and shown at any point, giving Seaton's Voice the option to increase the number of performances if they have a sell out show.

At a full town council meeting in November, the grant, which was offered to Seaton's Voice, was discussed by members of the town council and received mixed reviews; the sum was originally set-aside in the town council budget for youth and community.

Councillor James Semple said: "Despite the idea being an interesting one that would indeed put Seaton at the forefront of technology in the area, by allowing this development to happen we are giving Seaton's Voice a powerful commercial opportunity leading to a powerful contribution to their business model.

"The youth of the town should not be enclosed to watch yet another screen, but should be encouraged to be outdoors and more active."

Councillor Gaynor Sedgwick added: "Money should be used for the youth of the town and despite this being a brilliant idea I am not sure it will directly help young people."

Despite the minor concerns, the town council considered the application and reached a strong verdict that the money should be released to Seaton's Voice to contribute towards the overall £16,000 equipment costs.

A donation from members of Seaton Film Club, who are working closely with Seaton's Voice to ensure the project is a success, went towards the project.

There was also a private, interest free loan from a member of the public who is particularly interested in the live streaming concept.

Chairman of Seaton's Voice, Carole Manley, said: "The live streaming will introduce performing arts, stage management and basic business to all the family and we hope that we can get the local children involved as they are our future and will one day take over our responsibilities.

"Already we have a group of young people who have been introduced to stage management, customer service, lighting, sound and basic business models so they are not only feeling part of something to be proud of but are learning essential skills for their future career.

"As the live streaming develops, we will be able to get involved in all sorts of ventures and aspects of entertainment, and we will be able to constantly update the hall and move it into the future.

"Ideas such as live question and answer sessions with cast members of shows and even special packages in the winter months run in conjunction with local accommodation providers are on the cards and we are excited about what the future will bring.

"The live streaming will also accommodate our favourites at the town hall like our silver screen showings and so the beauty is that at a click of a button, we open Seaton to the world and the world to Seaton."

● The National Picture House Company will install the live streaming equipment this month and members of Seaton's Voice hope The Gateway will be open with its new attraction in February.

Beer CLT's first meeting

THE Beer Community Land Trust (CLT) will be holding their initial interest meeting on Thursday (January 10th) with the hope that their new group can aim to facilitate the development of affordable housing for local people.

The group hope to create a permanent asset for Beer and the meeting will explain the aims of Beer CLT, what has been done so far and how people can get involved. All are welcome and the meeting will take place at the Mariners Hall in the Balcony Room at 6.30pm.

Yarcombe Young Farmers help to keep air ambulance flying

FLYING HIGH | Club members present the cheque to an air ambulance representative

YARCOMBE Young Farmers' Club members raised more than £2,100 for Devon Air Ambulance Trust this year. The air ambulance is the club's chosen charity for 2012 and the year's fundraising programme yielded a total of £2,120. Club member Rebecca Laramy said the money was raised through various activities including a pantomime re-run with an auction. She added: "Other activities included a sponsored bike ride where six of our members cycled from Yarcombe to Weston-super-Mare, our yearly raft race, a car treasure hunt, a rounders/family evening and other small events."

Stolen car could have been used in burglary

POLICE believe that a car stolen from a driveway in Dalwood was used in a burglary.

Someone forced open a window of a house in Dalwood in the early hours of Monday, December 10th and stole a set of car keys.

This happened at some point between midnight and 4am, and a grey Ford Focus was taken from the driveway.

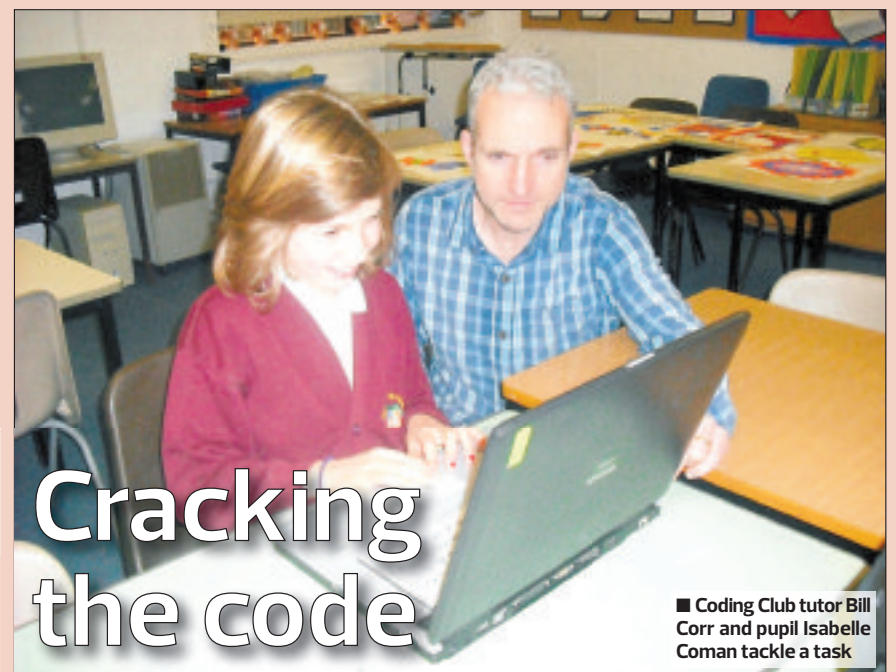

That morning police were called to a garden centre in Exmouth and found a safe in the car park.

Further investigation showed that the garden centre had been broken into and the safe removed. The car stolen in Dalwood was seen near the garden centre and officers gave chase.

The driver managed to shake off the officers and the car was later found abandoned near Ottery St Mary. Anyone who may have noticed something suspicious in Dalwood at the relevant time is asked to call police on 101 and ask for Honiton CID.

The crime reference number is KA/12/636.

Cracking the code

■ Coding Club tutor Bill Corr and pupil Isabelle Coman tackle a task

AN AFTER-school club at Shute Community Primary School equips children with skills vital for a career in the high-tech sector.

Club sessions are designed to give pupils an understanding of the programming behind some of the most popular websites in the world.

Coding Club teaches children how to program in a language called Perl, which is used behind-the-scenes in many applications, most notably to drive websites like the BBC iPlayer, Amazon and LoveFilm, according to club leaders.

The concepts that children learn when programming in Perl are portable to other programming languages, so they could use these skills at secondary level, even if they are being taught another programming language.

In the first session the club pulled apart a computer and discussed the technology inside it.

They also looked at how microelectronics have changed over time – examining how big a transistor was in 1970 and how advances in technology have led to a miniscule 16GB SD card in a mobile phone.

In subsequent sessions, the children have been writing simple programs to learn about different programming constructs.

Headteacher Amanda Graham said: "Information and Communication Technologies (ICT) provides pupils with essential skills but it only teaches them how to use software, rather than giving them the skills to write software and understand how computers work. This club provides children with the kind of grounding in programming skills that could, in time, lead to qualifications and employment in the high technology sector."

BEVISS & BECKINGSALE SOLICITORS

Fixed Costs for Probate Services

At Beviss & Beckingsale we are always asking our clients how they feel we can improve our services and, yes, to make us more attractive than our competitors.

It is a criticism often levelled at solicitors that their charges are not clear and are hidden amongst caveats and jargon. We have taken this criticism on board, as explained by Victoria Boyer, the head of our Private Client Team.

"Since becoming head of our Private Client Team I have been looking at ways of improving our service to clients. I am therefore delighted to offer a fixed fee service to our executor clients for administering estates on their behalf. That means a fixed cost provided at the outset so that our clients can be sure of exactly how much we would charge. I would also like to take this opportunity of rebutting the belief that our charges are higher than those of the supermarkets and insurers that have recently entered the legal services market. It is in their interest to encourage that belief but our research has clearly shown that this is not the case.

In addition these large institutions do not provide the personal service that Beviss & Beckingsale does and neither do they have the professional experience and qualifications that we have. We look at the complete picture on behalf of our clients, rather than just the job in hand, and so we can often save our clients substantial sums by arranging appropriate tax planning strategies.

If you would like to discuss the issues raised above, or indeed any of the other services offered by our Private Client Team, then please Do contact me on 01297 630700.

Musbury pupils enjoy science days

SCIENTIFIC | The young scientists proudly displays some of the periscopes

ENTHUSIASTIC pupils took part in two science days at Musbury Primary School under the leadership of teacher Richard Lucas.

The Light and Sound Day saw children produce periscopes and stringed instruments. School administrator Lorraine Tolman explained: "This term the children have been enjoying making periscopes as part of their work on light, and stringed instruments as part of their work on sound.

"The periscopes were great for peering round corners as well as over the top of obstacles.

"The stringed instruments were made from wood, nylon and string, and a plastic bottle sound box - they sounded really good."

The second science day was devoted to colours. Lorraine said: "Children separated out the colours in felt pens using chromatography, made spinners to demonstrate how the primary colours (red, green, blue) blend to make the secondary colours (cyan, magenta, yellow), and played all sorts of tricks on their eyes with amazing optical illusions."

What a difference a year makes

FOR years Christine Richards has battled with her weight, and about 10 years ago developed back problems that were life changing and left her battling pain ever since. Despite being advised by her Dr to lose weight Christine could not find the "diet" for her. She became more and more solitary with no confidence and got caught in a vicious spiral of ill health and comfort eating. It was a shock being told she had a cholesterol level of 10.6, double the acceptable level, and being told she was grossly obese.

Said Christine "I cried myself all the way home and continued to comfort eat and hate myself for letting this happen. I wasn't blaming anyone else, it was me who had allowed it to get this far, and it was only me who could change it".

The turning point came on a shopping trip when I picked up the local paper and was drawn to a story of one person's battle with weight and their journey to success. "I was consumed by a realisation that this could be about me!!!! It was the wake up call I needed as this seemed more real than a warning from my Dr!"

With the support of her husband, Christine decided it was time to join a Slimming Group in Honiton. "Tuesday came and the day seemed so long, my nerves were in tatters, but I knew I had to go to Slimming World that evening. I actually walked to the meeting and it was the hardest walk I had ever made. I stood outside the door my heart pounding and my legs like jelly, and on stepping in realised there were some familiar faces and people were smiling at me which is not what I expected. The moment Sharon, the Consultant, introduced herself to me I felt some sort of inner peace as it felt right to be there. I was totally reassured that I would get the support I needed throughout, and I knew I had done the right thing by going"

"Although I was scared when I first weighed, the weight started to drop off and all by enjoying food I loved. I still have the card I received for receiving my first ½ stone, and one year on I have now achieved my own Personal Target Weight and couldn't be happier. I walk everywhere now, I have my confidence back and even help Sharon in group now. I even go out socially which was a no-no beforeI have my life back"

Christine attends Slimming World at the Honiton Baptist Church which is held on Tuesdays @ 5.30pm & 7.30pm and also on Wednesdays @ 9.30am & 11.30am. For more information please call Sharon on 01404 41513.

Pilates; Ideal for everyone

THE Pilates technique was originally created by Joseph Pilates in the early 1900s and is still one of the most popular techniques in the world today. Originally it was called con-trollogy because Pilates believed the mind controls the muscles. It became a hit with dancers who used his method to prevent and recover from injuries.

Physiotherapist's Osteopaths and doctors often recommend the Pilates technique. Taught by a qualified practitioner it is one of the safest forms of exercise.

Pilates is a series of meticulous, slow moving exercises designed to strengthen balance and stretch the body. Existing clients mention they notice an increase in their mobility, and relief from aches and pains. By paying attention to how movements are performed the body/mind connection can re-awaken and re-educate the neuromuscular system which in turn results in Pilates exercises helping people who have; back pain, sports injuries, postural imbalances, stress and depression, low immunity and common illnesses, headaches & tension, strokes, osteoporosis and arthritis.

It can also be very beneficial for any sports and dance enthusiasts wanting to enhance their performance.

An appointment at my studio in Uplyme offers the very best in Pilates equipment, customer care and qualified teaching expertise.

NO STAGE FRIGHT | The young cast members put on a great performance

Local children stage Nativity plays

THE young people at Kilmington Baptist Church were put in charge of a Nativity service for the whole congregation.

About 80 people gathered on Sunday, December 16th to enjoy this annual event.

With readings, costumes and charm, the young people told again the story of the birth of Jesus.

The new names for local groups for children and young people were also announced.

The pre-school group will be called Adventurers, the primary aged children will be in a group called Explorers and the secondary aged young people will be the Trailblazers.

Church Pastor Darrell Holmes said: "It is amazing how well the children work together, even though they attend different local schools.

We have a great team of helpers with this work, and it obviously attracts the young people to keep coming back week after week.

If anyone would like to bring their children, please do come along on any Sunday at 10:45am to Kilmington Village Hall."

■ The Folly Nursery Pre-School held its Christmas Nativity Play last month, and the children were in fine form. The play, held on December 17th, was enjoyed by a packed audience of excited parents and grandparents and there was room in the stable for everyone

■ CHILDREN from Shute Community Primary School performed their Nativity play last month. The pupils from the reception class, Year 1 and Year 2 dressed in traditional nativity costumes to present 'Away In A Manger'

Christmas tree festival in Combe Raleigh

ST NICHOLAS' Church in Combe Raleigh was filled with Christmas trees for its annual tree festival.

Held over the second weekend of December, 28 beautifully decorated Christmas trees filled the church for all to enjoy with local groups such as the church bell ringers, ladies' coffee morning group and keep fit group all joining in the displays.

A spokesperson for the festival and Parish Church Committee said: "Who could have thought that a bell rope with its coloured sally or a tea bag and sugar sachet could double up as tree decorations.

"The 'Giving Tree' covered with sweets and chocolates was a wonderful idea and was almost bare by the end of the festival.

"The late afternoons with the twinkling tree lights created a truly magical atmosphere.

"We are grateful to everyone who took part and everyone who came to visit."

to spend at Archway Bookshop, Axminster

A little help would get Seaton looking its best

■ I WRITE in support of your reader who expressed concern about the amount of dogs' mess on Seaton beach - and agree that dogs should be restricted to designated areas all year round.

We returned to the UK after many years abroad and are disappointed with just how many dog owners do not clear up after their dogs. It isn't only on the beach either! We walk into town most days and every time there are more "deposits" on the residential streets, in town and on the beach. We also see owners allowing their pets to urinate against the seats on the seafront. What is wrong with people?

Where we used to live, the council provided bins that had doggie bags affixed to a holder above the bin that could be torn off and used for those people who go out unprepared. Seaton Council also needs to provide more bins around town and local streets - this may also stop those dog owners who bag the dog mess, but then either throw the bag in someone's hedge, or just leave it on the pavement! I agree there should be on-the-spot fines too (if there was anyone to police it!). Perhaps the council should invest in a ranger until the situation improves.

On another issue, there are a few businesses around the town that could better maintain their properties and general surrounds. We have a very pretty town here but it does need all the help it can get in attracting both locals and visitors. We chose to live in Seaton over Sidmouth for its natural beauty, but lots of people we met at places along the coast (as far as Exmouth) suggested that most of the East Devon Council's resources go into Sidmouth (and perhaps Budleigh Salterton) - and that is why some of the other towns maybe don't get the cleaning/upkeep resources that Sidmouth enjoys.

My final point is regarding signage. I've heard that this issue has been 'under discussion/planning' for a while, but has not materialized to date. Attractive signage over by Tesco, at a suitable place close to the seafront and even in major carparks showing the range of shops on offer in the town might encourage more visitors to explore the local shops.

I like to finish by saying we are very happy here and think that Seaton has lots of potential.

L. RIVERS,
Seaton

Disregard from minority of dog owners

■ IN response to the letter in respect of the dog rules on Seaton seafront, I am in agreement with Mr Grindrod's view that there is a disregard by a minority of dog owners who are simply not picking up after their dogs. It is pretty disgusting when found on the beach or footways.

I am also a dog owner and often let my dog run free on Westcliff. Despite there being several waste bins I have observed dog waste within a metre of the bin, and next to the benches, where locals and visitors alike can sit to admire the beauty of the bay, but who wants to sit next to a pile of dog waste. Does this occur early morning or at night?

In truth I have never seen anyone ignoring the picking up rules in Seaton, but as Mr Grindrod observed it's a problem that puts people off. Like most things in life it's the minority that spoil it for others.

MR D. PICK,
Seaton

Time has come for equality in Colyton Feoffees

■ YOU reported in your most recent edition (Pulman's View From Colyton, January 1st) that the Colyton Chamber of Feoffees has invited Mrs Sarah Charman to be its new bailiff, under the headline "Feoffees appoint first woman".

At first glance many readers may have been excited - indeed astonished - that this all-male preserve has at last made a woman one of its number. While Mrs Charman is to be wished well in her new role, it should be noted that she is not actually a Feoffee, which according to the Charities Commission merely means a trustee of our main local registered charity, meant to maintain and invest historical assets for the benefit of Colyton people.

Rejoicing should be confined perhaps until the fifteen men who meet privately in the Feoffees chamber are joined by a woman on equal terms.

Happily, the parish council has the opportunity to make just such an appointment this April when it considers who it wishes to be one of its Parish Council Nominated Trustees.

With the backing of new Feoffee chairman, Councillor Colin Pady, and his fellow councillors who are also Feoffees, Messrs Collier, Parr and Turner, surely the time and opportunity has come.

Table-top sales moving to Colyford

■ WE would like to say thank you to all the people that have supported our table top sale, held in Seaton Town Hall in the winter months.

Also, to all of the buyers and sellers that have been at the event.

We are unable to secure a site in Seaton with suitable access and parking, therefore we have decided to relocate to Colyford Memorial Hall as of February the 3rd 2013.

We hope that you will continue to support us at this new venue in the future.

Happy New Year!

New look for the wool shop

HONITON'S one and only wool shop is set to reopen today (January 8th) as 'The Wool Stack' with new owners, Austin Stack and Sara Watkinson, giving the store a bright future.

The couple have taken over from long term previous owner Barbara Brook and are excited to continue the wool shop for the community of Honiton, keeping the business running and improving it for the future.

New owner Sara Watkinson explained: "When we found out Barbara was retiring and nobody was going to be keeping the wool shop open, we felt compelled to take it over, especially as I am such a keen knitter myself."

"There is nowhere close to Honiton where you can pick up such a variety of wools and knitting equipment, and although shopping online is great, there is something about the need to touch and feel wool products to get the right buy."

"We have taken over around 70 per cent of Barbara's original stock so still have all the must haves and regular items on sale, but have also tried to be innovative and branch out by getting in some new European lines of wool and modernising our stock to follow today's trends."

Mrs Watkinson has lived in Honiton all her life and has a great past of family history in the town with many of her past relatives owning businesses in the Honiton area.

With direct family links to the 1950s motorcycle garage on Monkton Road, the White Hart Hotel, Black Lion Court Pub and butchers shop and Cranford Dairy, Mrs Watkinson feels proud to follow the family footsteps and become a business holder in the town herself, with the help of her husband Austin.

The couple who have two children, Hazel and Charlotte, hope to carry on the legacy of the wool shop whilst giving it the extra boost it needs to keep it going for the future. The pair have already had a great deal of interest, after expanding the window displays and capturing passers-by with their fun and exciting designs.

Mr Stack added: "We have always wanted a business and it feels right to be here, and with Sara's local links and love for knitting and textiles it feels fitting that we are here."

"We hope once we've opened and got on our feet, to start opening six days a week, to promote our web site and online sales and to introduce new lines of wool and products.

"We have also given the store a new lease of life, with the new Wool Stack name, fresh licks of paint and design, a new window display and a focus on recycling and biodegradable products."

"Sara will be supporting the on-going Knit and Natter groups every other Thursday at Zest and we hope to introduce some added quirky extras to the shop to keep with the trends. We hope regulars can still find what they're looking for and to inspire new customers too."

The Wool Stack will be officially opened today (January 8th) alongside a visit from the town's mayor, David Foster, and Austin and Sara are looking forward to welcoming existing and new customers to their shop.

Budapest Café Orchestra return to the Marine Theatre

AFTER their hit performance at the Marine Theatre last year, The Budapest Café Orchestra return to Lyme Regis to take away your January blues.

The Budapest Café Orchestra delivers the richness and dynamism of Balkan music in all its untameable glory. Featuring a wide-ranging programme of impassioned Hungarian Czardas, tender Russian folk melodies, rollicking dances from Romania and Moldavia, bittersweet Jewish laments, as well as their own electrifying compositions, the music evokes vivid images of Tzigane fiddle maestros, Budapest café life and gypsy campfires - good enough to make you want to book a holiday along the Danube!

The Budapest Café Orchestra are at The Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis on Thursday, January 24th. Doors open 7.45pm with the band onstage at 8.30pm. Tickets cost £13 or £11 concessions, and are available online at www.marinetheatre.com or by calling the box office on 01297 332138.

Tim Knight who gives a virtuoso performance in The Trial of Pickwick says: 'I'm really looking forward to this one. I love small and intimate venues'. Ian Pearce who has performed in all of Adaptable's shows says: 'I always feel that we are at our best in small spaces. This is how we started out. This was our original concept. Doctor Marigold is perfect for Uplyme.'

CAROLS ALL THE WAY!

CHRISTMAS is by far the busiest time of the year for the Lyme Regis Town Band. Since early December, the band has entertained at four residential homes, given concerts at All Saints and Musbury as well as their own Annual Christmas Concert. Carols were provided at Axminster's Festive Friday and for St Michael's School's Christmas service.

The Christmas Concert was very well attended and featured annual awards to members of the band. Bandmaster's and Chairman's Awards went to young cornet players Rory and Nicola and the Musical Director's Award to Viv Wright. Stuart Broom presented the Gordon Broom Memorial Shield to Roger Grose, who is responsible for the band's website and sponsorship, as well as deputising for the Musical Director.

Confident performances of three pieces were given by the Training Band, including the theme from 'Dr Who'. This was expertly conducted by fifteen year old Rory Dyer. Just how far the Training Band has come under the direction of Nikki Herbert was very clear.

Carols in Broad Street

The band is grateful to all who supported the concert in any way, with particular thanks to Alan Vian, the compere for the evening.

Christmas shoppers were entertained with carols on two occasions in Broad Street and the band accompanied Lyme Regis Rotary's carols around the tree. Band Secretary Adrian Pearson commented, 'for us, at this time of year, it's carols all the way, but we are delighted to help the local community celebrate Christmas'.

Following a short break, the band will be starting out in January with new music which will carry them through to the next summer season.

Hamelin Rat Pack collecting for Canned Sunshine project

A LARGE number of children will be descending upon the Guildhall in Axminster from January 17th to 19th intend on getting their hands on as much food as they can, as the picture below shows. Fortunately they are just part of the cast of Axminster Drama Clubs pantomime this year The Pied Piper of Hamelin as they (and others) are playing the part of the Hamelin Rat Pack.

The quiet town of Hamelin is taken over by a plague of rats that steal the village's food and leave Mother Hubbard's cupboard entirely bare apart from a large bone for her dog. Fortunately help is on hand much to the relieve of the Burgomaster and Town Clerk in the form of a passing piper who is able to rid the town of the rats for a small fee!

As usual with Axminster Drama Club Pantomimes

this will be a show full of colour, humour and enjoyable songs and will this year feature a number of new faces and well as a few of the usual ones.

Tickets are currently on sale at Archway Bookshop at discounted prices or can be purchased on the door on the nights of the show (that is so long as any tickets remain by then).

As part of making amends for their bad deeds the Hamelin Rat Pack will be helping to collect donations for The Axminster Food Bank being run by The Awareness Centre as part of their Canned Sunshine project. Everyone attending the show is therefore encouraged to bring along any unwanted canned or packaged food or unwanted Christmas treats to help the rats in their quest to become better rats in the future whilst helping those in need.

- Available in Polar White or Perla Nera Black with exclusive 'Red Touch' interior & exterior
- New Red special editions emphasise DS3's styling & desirability
- Additional equipment specified as standard

CITROËN has launched an exciting range of DS3 Red special editions for the New Year. The new models are based on DS3's existing DStyle and DSport trim levels, with exclusive styling cues and additional standard equipment. The special edition DS3 Red range is available now, priced from just £15,655.

A touch of red

Complementing the Polar White or Perla Nera Black body colours, all DS3 Red models come with an exclusive 'Red Touch' interior and exterior pack, which includes a 'Sport Red' roof and door mirrors. Also specific to the Red range is the striking 'Sport Red' finish to the front grille and chevrons. Inside, the vibrant red customisation continues with a matching red dashboard and door handle surrounds.

Matching the exterior body colour chosen by the customer, DS3 Red models come with white or black 16-inch 'Ashera' alloy wheels on DStyle Red models and white or black 17-inch 'Bellone' alloys on DSport Red versions. All wheels come complete with 'Sport Red' centre caps.

Special editions offering more

DS3 DStyle Red models are available, as standard, with Citroën's 'Connect Signature' pack, which includes Bluetooth® and USB connectivity, plus an enhanced Hi-Fi system and additional speakers for superior sound quality.

The 'City Signature' pack, which comes as standard on DSport Red versions, consists of automatic headlights and wipers, rear parking sensors, electric heated and folding door mirrors, an electrochrome rear view mirror, interior mood lighting and a front central armrest. All DSport Red versions are also specified, as standard, with Bluetooth®, USB connectivity and the same enhanced Hi-Fi system as specified in DStyle Red.

Engine options & prices

DS3 DStyle Red is available with either a VTi 120 petrol engine or an e-HDi 90 Airdream diesel engine that produces just 98g/km of CO₂. The DS3 DSport Red is powered by a THP 155 petrol engine, with a 6-speed manual gearbox, or an e-HDi 115 Airdream diesel, also with a 6-speed manual transmission.

E 300 Bluetec Hybrid triumphs in business car manager SME Company Car of the Year Awards

The new Mercedes-Benz E 300 BlueTEC Hybrid has triumphed in the Business Car Manager SME Company Car of the Year Awards 2012, winning two categories including Best Overall Company Car for SMEs.

Judged by a panel of industry leaders chaired by Phil Orford, Chief Executive of the Forum of Private Business, the E 300 BlueTEC Hybrid was voted Best Company Car for SME Directors and Best Overall Company Car for SMEs.

Ralph Morton, Business Car Manager Editor, said: "The new Mercedes-Benz E 300 BlueTEC Hybrid brings a new dynamic to the SME Company Car Market. There's all the prestige of the three-pointed star, incredible shove-you-down-the-road performance, plenty of space, yet a benefit-in-kind company car tax rating that would make the taxman wince. It was a clear winner with all our judges. And the only car to do so."

The SME Company Car of the Year awards, presented by Business Car Manager in association with MAGMA Automotive Services, are designed to highlight the best company cars and car support programmes available to SMEs in the market.

Nick Andrews, Head of Fleet for Mercedes-Benz UK, commented: "This is a fantastic win for our first diesel-electric vehicle. The E 300 BlueTEC Hybrid generates just 109 grams of CO2 per kilometre, with a combined fuel economy of 67.3 mpg, as proved in our real-world driving eco challenge, so it really is an exciting company car."

Priced from £39,645 OTR, the E 300 BlueTEC Hybrid is the most efficient E-Class production car, and features an advanced diesel-electric hybrid system that allows for electric-only drive. Standard equipment includes 17-inch alloy wheels – 16-inch wheels can be fitted as a no-cost option to achieve the lowest possible CO2 and economy figures. Also included is leather upholstery, Becker Map Pilot Navigation and LED daytime running lights.

Younger drivers run risk through service skipping

NEW research carried out by the Society of Motor Manufacturers and Traders (SMMT) has revealed that many younger drivers are failing to have their car serviced and maintained correctly. Risking vehicle-related financial, safety and efficiency problems, younger motorists are not only failing themselves, but other road users too.

Polling 2,000 motorists on attitudes towards car maintenance, the survey found that 10% of drivers aged 18-24 claim their vehicle isn't ever serviced. This figure rises among 25-34 year-olds, with 12% of owners failing to have even basic service and repair work carried out. By contrast, the number of over-55s claiming never to service their car is just 2%, as well as around 5% of 35-54 year-olds.

The research highlights the danger to which some motorists are exposing themselves, with tyres and brakes among the many safety-critical items left unchecked. Additionally, the service-skippers risk greater likelihood of a breakdown, reduced efficiency and increased wear and tear; issues a manufacturer main dealer can help motorists avoid.

A modern car has more computing power than the craft that took man to the moon, yet the survey highlights that most young drivers are oblivious to the benefits of upgrades to vehicle software. 57% of 18-24 year-olds were unaware that software upgrades from the manufacturer can help maximise efficiency, not to mention the security, safety and comfort benefits of software upgrades.

"Most drivers are aware of the benefits of regular servicing, but a significant number of drivers are putting themselves at greater risk of an accident, breakdown or costly repair by not taking their cars to a dealership for servicing," said Paul Everitt, SMMT Chief Executive. "A properly maintained car is not only more fuel-efficient, but will be safer and more reliable. Putting off service and repair work is a false economy with risks and costs outweighing short-term gains."

"To stay safe and keep costs down, motorists should stick to servicing schedules and have repairs carried out promptly at a manufacturer main dealer. There, fully-trained technicians will work with the latest diagnostic equipment and fit manufacturer-approved parts," added Everitt. "Given the speed with which vehicle systems move on these days, it's also important that drivers check with their local main dealer to see if software upgrades are available for their model."

To find out more about the services available from your main dealer, visit the manufacturer's website.

All-new Range Rover & Airstream

IN ORDER to demonstrate the class-leading towing ability of the all-new Range Rover, Land Rover teamed up with an American icon to take part in the ultimate road-trip to one of the highest points in Africa.

With a newly-launched Airstream 684 Series 2 aluminium travel trailer hitched to its electrically-deployable tow bar, a Range Rover Autobiography with the 339PS SDV8 engine was chosen for the challenge – to drive from Airstream's European home in the English Lake District, to the top of the Atlas Mountains in Morocco – and back...

More European Airstream owners choose Land Rover products to tow their 'silver bullets' than cars from any other manufacturer so all-new Range Rover and Airstream made for an appropriate pairing. The journey started at the factory where Airstream finishes its European specification trailers in Tebay, just a few miles from the Scottish border, to Oukaïmeden, which is the highest ski resort in Africa. En route, it encompassed Land Rover's state of the art factory in Solihull, Frank Gehry's amazing aluminium Marques de Riscal building in the Spanish wine region of Rioja, the beach near Casablanca, the desert outside Chichaoua and the race track at Marrakesh, where Land Rover was based for the launch of the new car.

Often on the move for more than 12 hours a day on every type of road imaginable – from the empty motorways of Spain to the precipitous hairpins of the High Atlas – the all-new Range Rover coped imperiously with the challenge of towing a 2,399 kg Airstream 3,676 miles in just 11 days.

Ben Samuelson, whose firm Samuelson Wylie Associates planned and executed the trip, was deeply impressed by the new car: "The new Range Rover's towing ability is nothing short of stunning. It pulled the two and a half tonne Airstream like it simply wasn't there."

It didn't matter what we, or the weather, threw at it – it just did the job we asked of it without question, while truly cossetting us with its extraordinary luxury and refinement. Half way through Spain, we encountered horrendous side winds, the type that sees articulated trucks tipped onto their side, but the Range Rover's Trailer Stability Assist meant that any sway in the trailer was dealt with before it ever started. And mountains. What mountains? With 700 NM of torque from that mighty V8 diesel at our disposal, there wasn't an incline that slowed us down at all, even with a gross train weight of well over 5 tonnes. What was possibly even more impressive was the way that, even after repeated 12 hour driving days, we'd step up into that exquisite cabin in the morning and still appreciate its sense of occasion."

A useful start in Life

HAVING a full driving licence is so important for so many reasons, rest assured I teach to a very high standard. I teach safety for life, lessons can be fun and very cost effective.

Quality not Quantity, I have personally developed and perfected over the past years a very unique teaching aid that helps to take away the conscious effort of vehicle control. It helps to coordinate hand, feet and eyes, which means I can teach vehicle control in a much shorter time. Then the real art of thinking outside the car begins.

So why not have an assessment lesson as soon as possible, you might surprise yourself. I also specialise in intensive courses!

Beer battle back to claim impressive point

REPORTS

Devon & Exeter League - Div 2

SIDMOUTH TOWN RES 1 CHAGFORD 0
THE Sidmouth second string enjoyed their first run out for over a month as they entertained bottom of the table Chagford at Manstone Road.

With groundsman Ken Mortimore working tirelessly to prepare the pitch it was touch and go that the game would go ahead.

After a pitch inspection by the match official it was decided to start the match. It was the away side that created the first few openings but wayward finishing saw Craig Fitzhenry untroubled in the home goal. Town slowly started to get to grips with the conditions with Doug Still making a series of raids down the left which saw the ball flash across an empty goalmouth on several occasions.

Further pressure from the Vikings saw Greg Chaplin create three fantastic chances from corners that had the Chagford 'keeper in all sorts of trouble.

The home side were then denied a stone wall penalty when Jordan Sticklands shot was clearly hand-balled only for the referee to wave away any appeals. On the stroke of half-time Town created a glorious chance when, after good work by Alex Martin, Paris Pinney somehow managed to head over with the goal at his mercy.

The Vikings took the game to Chagford after the restart but could not break through a resolute defence and Fitzhenry forced into making two fantastic saves at the other end.

But Sidmouth kept plugging away and were eventually rewarded when Pinney was put through and drilled his effort past the visiting 'keeper to claim all three points and a jump to seventh place for Nick Ogden's team. This Saturday the Reserves are at home to Dawlish with the first team returning to South Peninsula League action with a trip to Credition United.

Devon & Exeter League - Div 4

OXEHAMPTON 3 AXMOUTH 5
AXMOUTH returned to action having had only two games since October and none in last six weeks with a tough trip away to Okehampton.

The absence didn't look to have been a problem as they took the lead after just 24 seconds through Charlie Clarke and doubled the lead inside 10 minutes when Reece Hales slotted home a Matt Ellis lay off.

A mix-up from a throw-in presented the home side with a simple chance to make 2-1.

But just inside the half hour Axmouth restored the two goal advantage when Asa Sandman neatly finished another Ellis set up.

Back came the hosts and another defensive error saw them make it 3-2 at the break.

In an increasingly fiercely competitive game the home side gained parity from a fine move and finish and looked to be in the ascendancy with strong subs brought into the fray.

However, the visitors showed their own strength and resolve as Clarke netted a second and this was duly followed by a Hales wonder strike for his second to make it 5-3 midway through the half.

As the home side pressed so the Ax defence stood firm superbly backed by glove man Mark Rooke.

Axmouth manager Laurie Forino said: "We are really pleased with that result following a long break - we really needed a game. They (Okehampton) made it a great match and the pitch stood up to it really well.

The lads were tremendous today. Hopefully we can continue in coming weeks when we have some real big games notably next week with the local derby against high-flying Axminster Town Reserves.

ROUND-UP

PREMIER division leaders HATHERLEIGH TOWN turned over the New Year with their six-point advantage still intact but had their feathers ruffled at WILLAND ROVERS where they won 1-0.

It needed a wonder goal from Mark Lake to clinch the points against a ten man Rovers, who were issued a red card midway through the first-half.

Second placed FENITON were a goal down at half-time at CLYST VALLEY, but once back on level terms on the hour mark hit the goal trail to win 5-1.

Andrew Jones, Dave O'Connor, Charlie Selley and substitutes Kieran Johnson and Rob Pfeiffer shared the pickings.

Reigning champions ST MARTINS looked to be well on course when two up against BEER ALBION and dominating.

But the Saints had a man sent off and Beer recovered to earn a 2-2 draw. Jamie Trewick and substitute Justin Adkin scored for the Fishermen.

Division One leaders CHARD TOWN succumbed to a 1-0 defeat against title rivals BOW AAC while SIDBURY UNITED beat WITHERIDGE 3-1 to close the gap to just a point. Ash Small, Sam Elstub abd Dave Green were the Sidbury scorers.

ELMORE saw off Division Two promotion rivals BICKLEIGH 4-1, and are getting away from the chasing pack. After a season of disruption and HONITON beat COLATON RALEIGH 2-1 in only their sixth league game of the season. Brad Groves and a Ben Price penalty saw the Lacemen to their seventh consecutive win in all competitions.

DAWLISH UNITED are up to second after a 3-0 win against PINHOE, and HALWILL continued their good form beating EXETER CIVIL SERVICE 4-1 thanks to a second-half Simon James hat-trick.

DOLPHIN hit the heady heights of third place in Division Three following their 3-1 victory over SOUTH ZEAL.

THORVERTON are up to the safety of mid-table after their 5-3 win at OFFWELL RANGERS. Dean Slumen, James Doidge and Joe Knight scored for the Rangers.

Division Five leaders CHERITON FITZPAINE had to dig deep to earn a 2-1 win at BOW AAC, Mike Back and James White scoring. HATHERLEIGH TOWN beat COUNTESS WEAR DYNAMOES 3-2 but key player Jack Tyson suffered a possible broken leg.

FENITON are the new leaders in Division Six after crushing EXWICK VILLAGE 7-1. Danny Lewis and James Brimblecombe both scored twice for Fenny.

A wonderstrike from Rob Adkin put BEER ALBION Reserves on their way to victory over visiting ST MARTINS.

Simon Smith added a second to clinch the win which was soured by a broken metatarsal suffered by Josh Harrison which will keep him sidelined for the remainder of the season

Budleigh Salterton 0 Seaton Ladies 4

SEATON started the new year with another win and a great team performance.

Due to sickness and holidays the visitors had only 11 players but each player was outstanding. Jemima Coleman (2) Tara Arnott and Adele Foxwell with her first goal for the club were the scorers. Sue Campbell and Lauren Collins were on top form for the winners.

SEATON TEAM: Jeans, Burridge, Perrin, Collins, Westlake, Campbell, Coalter, Foxwell, Lamprill, Arnott, Coleman.

Sidmouth Town U14 1 Seaton Town 1

THE last clash of these teams saw Sidmouth triumphant by 13 goals to 4! So Seaton were determined to show the improvement they have made over the few weeks.

The venue was switched to Sidmouth due to Seaton's waterlogged pitch. Oliver Browne gave Seaton an early lead only for the hosts to level before the interval.

Seaton Man-of-the-Match was Captain Ollie Binion, Thomas Driver again was fantastic in goal but the whole team did so well after the Christmas break.

Next week Seaton are home to Axminster Town (10.30am kick-off).

GRECIANS LOOKING LOCALLY

EXETER City FC Youth Department is looking to strengthen their links with the local club sides in the South West.

The club would like to invite local club secretary's and chairmen from the youth section's of local clubs along to a meeting on Saturday, February 2nd at St James Park Stadium to discuss how we can develop these partnerships.

The Grecians' Head of Youth, Simon Hayward, will give a presentation and hold a discussion where ideas can be aired from all those involved who will then have the opportunity to watch the Exeter City versus Aldershot Town match from one of our sponsors boxes. All those attending should arrive at the ground at 1.45pm ready for the meeting to commence at 2pm.

Mr Hayward said: "We feel that strong links between Exeter City FC and local clubs could be of great benefit to local players. By recommending talented players to attend one of our Advanced Development Centres or our ECFC Performance Centre in Exeter the boys will be able to participate in an extra training session each week whilst continuing to enjoy their club football."

"The extra session that the boys participate in with us at Exeter will incorporate skills and practices that are used by our Academy and even First Team players and will be coached by experienced FA qualified coaches. The boys will be playing and training alongside the better players from each of the local club sides which will help to constantly challenge them and allow them to develop their football quicker."

"A link with us at Exeter City FC would also be of great benefit to local clubs. As discussed above, extra training sessions for your players is going to help them to develop their football which will lead to better performances in their club football for you on a Saturday."

"We can also provide chances for any club coaches that want to develop their coaching to view sessions run by our Academy coaches and ask any questions that they may have. Added to this, we can offer opportunities for players to attend First Team fixtures at St James Park."

"We have three Advanced Development Centres in the East Devon area which can cater for the players from the region. The Centres are situated in Colyton (Colyton Sports Centre), Exmouth (Exmouth Community College) and Ottery St Mary (Colin Tooze Sports Centre). Our ECFC Performance Centre is based in Exeter at Isca College of Media Arts."

"If you have any questions or would like any more information about the Exeter City FC Youth Department as a whole please do not hesitate to contact me at your earliest convenience."

"Please can you call or email our Foundation Phase Lead Coach, Arran Pugh, by Saturday 19th January to confirm your attendance at this meeting. Mobile: 07854 954747, email: arran.pugh@exetercityfc.co.uk

SENIOR CLUB

ONCE again, despite the bad weather, the Seniors were able to complete the sixth round of the Winter League Programme recently.

Although no team has opened up a commanding lead, the most recent winners Rob Heard and Hugh Willis, who scored 37 points, are mounting quite a challenge.

In second place with 35 points were Bill Polley and Dave Weston with Nick Povey in third place on 34 points.

Bob Berry recorded the day's only 2.

LADIES

TO welcome in the New Year the ladies of Axe Cliff competed for the Hangover Cup - a 15-hole Stableford.

The winner was Pauline Willis with Lesley Crawford in second place.

SENIORS

A LARGE field The seniors splashed their way around the course to play their Medford and Eclectic.

It was a pleasant surprise to have the course open after all the rain and the ground staff did well to provide a course at all, even though about half the greens were temporaries.

Thirty nine players took part and the first casualty of the Winter handicap system was Alan Pollock who will suffer a reduction of two on his handicap of 15 for the rest of the season - serves him right for winning Division One twice!

Pollock came in with 13 points, closely followed by Bob Cleal who beat Jim Wallis on countback. Don Stroud took the last prize in that Division.

Phil Faulkner won Division Two with 16 points, Bob Underwood had 17 while Ashley Murray and Brian Morrison took the final prizes.

It was Captain John Discombe's last appearance as skipper and he had to suffer the well-meant barracking of the members as well as their thanks for an interesting year.

Bob Underwood's first competition as the seniors' captain cost him dear. He made the best score of the day and under the winter handicap rules he was shown a red card so must play the rest of the winter season with a handicap reduction of two! Bob's fellow-competitors showed their sympathy with a round of applause.

The first division was won by Ron Graham with 37 points. Malcolm Matthews came second beating Dave Maggs on countback. John Discombe and Bob Cleal took the last prizes.

Bob Underwood's 39 points was best of the day and he won division two beating Steve Blundell, Norrie Fleet, Ron Rogers and Phil Faulkner.

Ron Cooper scored the only two and won 36 balls to share with his partners. The best shot of the day came from Malcolm Matthews who holed a 130-yard approach shot to make a birdie on the 15th.

WITH WILL MOWBRAY

Dorset too hot to handle for Sidmouth

North Dorset 20 v Sidmouth 6

THE CHIEFS defeated North Dorset heavily at the Blackmore in September, but any complacency about this return match should have been quickly dispelled in the opening minutes.

This was a much improved North Dorset side, which grew in confidence as the Chiefs failed to match their intensity.

From the kick off, North Dorset profited from the Chiefs handling errors and poor kicking. In contrast, the home side were more accurate and played at a high tempo, which stretched the Sidmouth defence.

In the fifteenth minute James Powell brought off a desperate try-saving tackle on the left winger before the fly half missed a very kickable penalty. So it was against the run of play that the Chiefs took the lead midway through the half with a Tom Whelan penalty.

The lead did not last long. Confusion in the Sidmouth ranks and a charged down kick led to the concession of another penalty. Instead of kicking for goal a quick tap was taken and smart handling sent the left winger over in the corner for an unconverted try.

North Dorset were soon back on the attack and it was the turn of Matt Goss to produce a last-ditch tackle. However, Rhys Thomas was shown the yellow card for trying to retrieve the ball illegally.

Despite their scrum being under pressure with a full complement, the Chiefs tried to defend a five metre scrum with seven men. At the second attempt North Dorset shunted them back for a pushover try touch down by the number eight. Again the try was unconverted.

The Chiefs had their best spell of the half in the closing minutes of the half with both Jack Pyne and new recruit Alva Senderayi making powerful inroads over the gain line.

The 18 year old from Zimbabwe was comfortably Sidmouth's man-of-the-match. The reward was a Dan Retter drop goal to make the half-time score 6-10.

Any hopes that the Chiefs might regroup after the break were quickly dashed when North Dorset ran back a loose kick and the right winger profited from some poor tackling to score under the posts. The fly half added the conversion.

A rare slick handling move put Chris Higgs in space. The wingman made it to the line but was unable to ground the ball. By now the Chiefs had lost both props to injury and the referee had to order uncontested scrums. They also lost Dan Trim to the sin bin for handling in a ruck near his line. North Dorset kicked the resulting penalty. Minutes later the Chiefs were again defending desperately and the home number eight was held up over the line to deny them a bonus point.

Once restored to a full 15 the Chiefs began to get on top. A losing bonus point looked possible when Chris Higgs snapped up a loose ball and set off up field. He evaded the full back but slowed down sufficiently for the cover to catch him just short of the line.

Under pressure, North Dorset lost two players to the sin bin but the Chiefs could not make use of the extra men to cut the deficit in the closing minutes.

Sidmouth Preview

ON SATURDAY Honiton entertain league leaders North Petherton. Chiefs lie in 9th position will be needing a much-improved performance. The kick off is at 2.30pm.

After a narrow loss to second placed Exmouth, Sidmouth Seconds could not have asked for a tougher test than high-flying Brixham at the top of the Devon Senior Merit Table.

Sitting second from bottom, Sidmouth will have to be on top of their game if they have any hope of getting something from the match.

The Colts travel to Okehampton.

Honiton 6 Wellington 22

HONITON STILL can't score the tries they need to play their way out of trouble in the division, and fell down to a strong Wellington side.

Possession was 50-50, but the hosts didn't seem to have the finishing touches needed to finish off some great rugby Wellingtons scored the first try in which they converted. They then quickly added a second before the break which seemed to dampen Honitons spirit going into the second half.

George Meadows kicked a penalty for Honiton in the first-half and added another in the second which seemed to regalvanise the team but couldn't push for a more points.

The scores stayed as they were until the last 10 minutes where the visitors found that little extra and extended their scores with two tries.

Overall Wellington showed their class, in the end. However Honiton put up a good fight but couldn't find the finishing touches, which ultimately, cost them the match.

Honiton Preview

HONITON, currently bottom of the Tribute West Counties West table, travel to Truro who lie in tenth.

Honiton look to mount the 11 point gap between them and Tavistock, but it will be a tough fixture for the visitors.

Honiton seconds host second placed Crediton in the Division Two Merit Table. There is a 22 point gap between the sides going into the match and Honiton will have to be wary and ready for Crediton's attacking prowess in an attempt to get something from the game.

Familiar face in Wellington 10K

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS

with Dave Mutter

THERE was only one race entered by AVR's during the festive period, the Wellington Monument "Bert King Memorial" 10K.

This starts and finishes in Hem-yock and is basically a steep run up to the monument and back.

Robin Britton was the first AVR home 2nd over 60, 53rd overall in 45:17.

Eleanor Wood was next, 71st in 47:04, closely followed by Paul Johns 76th, 47:52.

Harry Moore was delighted with his run, he has not been able to compete lately but was determined to enter this race.

He finished in 1:48 and received a cup for the first over 80 finisher – Harry has run more Wellington races the any other runner!

The AVR gang were 8th in the team competition.

A few hardy souls completed the rather damp Chard 10K Multi-Terrain run on New Year's day. Amy Greenhalgh ran well to finish 16th in 42:59.

Martin Croad continued his improvement; he was 23rd, 44:05 and Robin Britton 30th, 45:41.

Despite getting a tad slower Harry Moore continues to enjoy competing and he finished this race in 1:47.

Lesley Adams was busy over the New Year period. On New Year's Day she ran the Worcester Park 5K finishing 85th in 29:46, then on Saturday she ran the Cannon Hill (Birmingham) park run finishing 229th in 28:02.

Garry Perratt, Patrick Devine-Wright and Matt Clist decided to run off the Christmas excess with a 40-mile jog, following the East Devon Way from Exmouth to Uplyme then continuing down to the Cobb at Lyme Regis.

Their target was to beat the fastest known time, Tom Bland's 7:15, so they set a 7:00 schedule.

All went well for the first 30-odd miles, accompanied for parts by James Jackson, Robin Carter, but the saturated ground made the largely off-road route very hard going and Garry was really struggling by the time they approached Colyton.

They were five minutes under schedule up to Northleigh, dropped to five minutes down at Musbury and 15 down at Uplyme Mill which they held until reaching the Cobb Arms, thereby missing the record by a mere minute.

Still, it was a good effort under the conditions and leaves something to aim for when the weather improves!

'Man of the Match' goes to Matt who ran more strongly than Garry all the way, despite never having run further than a marathon before!

Hat trick for George

Honiton Hornets 8 Torbay 2

VISITING Torbay put up a valiant fight but were certainly outclassed by a Honiton side who started the new Year in explosive fashion.

However Torbay, much against the general run of play, opened the scoring after 10 minutes, but this was swiftly cancelled out by Jean Herniman who efficiently flipped the ball into the corner of the goal from an acute angle.

A further two goals were scored by Honiton before the half-time whistle. The first came from Amy Phillips and this was followed by a reverse stick sweep from Sophie George.

Herniman again opened the goal scoring in this half, and was swiftly followed by a decisive Dawn Mayo goal; before Laura Frank, on two separate occasions sped the ball across the circle to George who converted twice to complete a fine hat-trick.

The final goal came in the last couple minutes when Lydia Cox soundly sealed Torbay's fate.

Player of the Match: Sophie George Practices continue on Wednesday evenings between 8.00pm and 9.00pm on the all-weather surface adjacent to Honiton Sports Centre.

This surface is not the best for hockey sticks, and it is likely to cause damage to your stick so PLEASE, if possible, use an old stick for training, cost is £2 per session

All interested in hockey - regardless of current experience and skills - will be made most welcome, so just turn up!

Honiton clock-up magnificent seven Sidbury closing in on top spot

THE Devon & Exeter League finally returned to something like normality with just 15 games postponed.

Premier division title chasers Feniton completed back-to-back 5-1 wins over relegation candidates Clyst Valley to remain in second spot in the table.

Fenny face another of the division's strugglers when East Budleigh visit Acland Park on Saturday.

Sidbury United resumed their promotion charge in division one with an impressive 3-1 win over rivals Witheridge Reserves at Byes Land. Ashley Small, Sam Elstub and Dave Green scored for the Seagulls who moved to within a point of the top spot after Chard Town Reserves were beaten 1-0 at home by third-placed Bow AAC.

With Chard inactive next weekend Sidbury could claim top spot with a win at University. After four consecutive postponements Honiton Town returned to action by beating Colaton Raleigh 2-1 at Mountbatten Park to record their seventh straight win.

Honiton manager Kev Blackwell will look for more of the same when his side head off to Pinhoe on Saturday while Raleigh have no scheduled fixture. After an amazing six postponements Sidmouth Town Reserves finally had a run-out - and Nick Ogden's side celebrated with 1-0 win. Next up for the Vikings is Saturday's visit by promotion-chasing Dawlish United.

Down in division three Upton were held to a disappointing 1-1 draw by seemingly doomed Sandford. The Otters entertain Winkleigh on Saturday while Ottery St Mary return to action with a trip to Hemyock.

Meanwhile, Offwell also went down - beaten

5-3 at home by Thorverton Reserves. Manager Garry Osborne will hope for better at the weekend when his charges entertain unbeaten Crediton United Reserves.

In division six Feniton Reserves hit top spot after they thrashed Exwick Village 7-1 and previous incumbents Amory Park Rangers were beaten 4-1 on their own turf by Duneswell Rovers. Lapford Reserves are the next team in Fenny's sights.

It was a similar story in division Seven with Fluxton benefitting from Tipton St John Reserves' defeat at Otterton by edging a 3-2 away win at struggling Cheriton Fitzpaine Reserves.

Flixton head off to lowly Tedburn St Mary at the weekend while Ottery St Mary Reserves dust off their boots for the local derby at Colaton Raleigh Reserves whose game against Honiton Town Reserves last Saturday was postponed. The Honiton second-string entertain Lymington Reserves.
